HIS HOLINESS, POPE JOHN XXIII

Bishop of Rome and Vicar of Jesus Christ;
Successor of Saint Peter, Prince of the Apostles;
Supreme Pontiff of the Universal Church;
Patriarch of the West; Primate of Italy;
Archbishop and Metropolitan of the Roman Province;
Sovereign of Vatican City.

SPIRITUAL LEADERS

REVEREND BROTHER JOSAPHAT, S.C.

Superior General of the Institute of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart

Dressed for his night of the year, Bobby Homes gallantly assists his date from the car.

Juniors and Seniors Danced at 1958's

For the juniors, this is just another dance. The major formal, of course, but after all, only a dance. Only a dance . . . And to the seniors, tonight is the night for solemn smiles, laughing sentiments; the night to be big men—to tip the waiters, to be gentlemen. Tonight is a time to dance, to sing, to remember many things; to talk like a man, like a boy; to be everything at once, especially happy.

Bobby Boggs, Ames Kergosien, and dates gave the elevator a joyful atmosphere as they ascended to the ballroom.

Jay Zainey and his orchestra provided the music for scenes such as these.

Major Formal

Having danced several numbers, David Garcia and date rest before resuming their lively pace.

Seniors Charlie Falgout and Peggy Kergosien get in a last dance before their "night of nights" ends.

Graduation

Receiving Our Lord in Holy Communion, the Seniors pledge their futures to the ideals inculcated into them at SSC.

Van Aucoin serves Holy Mass as Father Adams offers it for the seniors' intentions.

Seniors say the Missa Recitata at Holy Mass on Graduation Day.

Exercises Ended the Seniors' Year.

This is the day, and this, the hour
Long awaited;
Long sown the seed, and now the flower
Springs light-ward, consummated!

Now the seed at last discarded—
The seed of boyhood—
Now long struggles are rewarded:
Behold the bloom of manhood!

Standing with stout hearts, and hopeful,
Hearts upleaping,
Stand these men so tall and graceful:
This is the day of reaping.

This is a day of humble pride,
A pride well-won;
But now to test their worth untried:
Now the battle has begun!

This is the day of joyful hope,
Hope unassuming;
"Tomorrow" is an endless scope
After the flower's blooming.

His Excellency Bishop Brunini presents James Raymond the SSC Day Scholar Character Cup.

Bishop Brunini addresses the Seniors and guests and emphasizes the importance of a thorough Catholic education.

David Levy is embraced by his mother after the ceremonies at which he received the American Legion award.

The two eighth grade classes grouped for a picture are: Back row: Brother Cosmas, Kenny Coulon, Peter Giacoma, Paul Bourque, Vi Vidrine, Joe Gliddon, Paul Nunez, Brother Cecil. Second row: Al Brignac, Robert Develle, Lavelle Griffin, Ken Develle, Kenny Ryan, Kerry Leary, Tim Kemery, Bill Parra. Third row: Ken Kopf, Bill LeBlanc, Aurelius Lowe, George Hill, Pat Odriozola, Oswald Caceres, Ed Gamard. Fourth row: Jack Pogue, Roy Saux, Joe Gex, Earl Yeomans, John Ladner, William Harnish. Fifth row: Donald Blaize, Robert Gentry, William Rutherford, Larry Genin, J. Ploue, Sidney Bourque, N. J. Yuja. Sixth row: Mickey McKee, Alfred Ferry, Gus Carmadelle, William Godoy, Rolf Seeberg, Edward Mora, Danny Henry.

Brothers Cosmas and Cecil prepare the graduates for their march into Our Lady of the Gulf Church for graduation ceremonies.

Graders Looked Forward to High School.

After long hours of practice and days of anxiety and expectation, the long line of young men looks pale, dazed and very nervous. "This is it! This is IT!" or, "Whew, I barely made this one." or, "This is the first and last time I'll get into this suit." These and a hundred other great and trivial thoughts go humming through their minds. But most of all, they are thinking, "Now for high school; that ought to be a snap." Yes, they are thinking of bigger and better "triumphs" already. They can never be too young or too old for that.

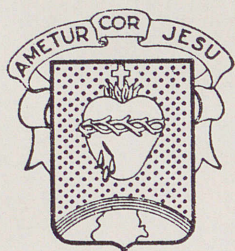

Msgr. McCarthy, pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Church, impresses upon the young men the importance of their high school years.

The crowning point of graduation — receiving Our Lord in Holy Communion.

FOREWORD

We, the graduating class, proudly present to you—our parents, schoolmates, and friends—the White Cap of 1959.

Our senior year has been a memorable one, and we have tried to recapture part of it in these pages. We have lived it and we relive it for you that you may share it with us.

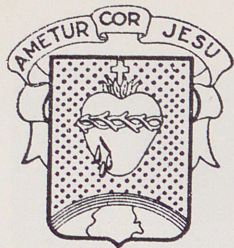

To the Brothers who gave so generously of their time to guide the yearbook staff; to the staff itself for its constant, persevering work; to our business managers; and to our advertisers, we extend our heartfelt thanks for a job well done.

May the White Cap of '59 be for you what it is for us—a catalog of memories from SSC.

DEDICATION

"... for all my life in the Institute of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart." With these words spoken fifty years ago, three young men offered their lives, labors, and laughs to the Sacred Heart.

Brother Edmund served as teacher, director, and tutor. For many years he was secretary of the SSC Sideline Club and was, until his transfer this year, a familiar figure on the campus.

Brother Julius, a former postulant master, teacher, and director, moves about the campus spreading laughter and good will. As tutor par excellence, he has many SSC students under his guidance.

Brother William, former president of SSC, is another member of the triumvirate. A classical language devotee, he requires his students to do their utmost and inculcates into them the spirit of the old masters.

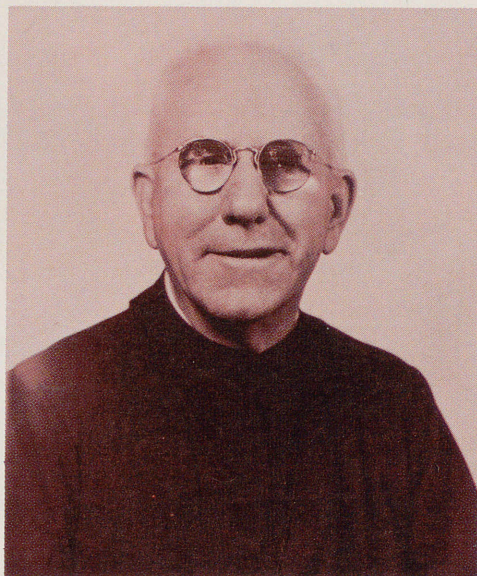

It is to these three golden jubilarians that this issue of the White Cap is respectfully dedicated. May they continue for many years more in the service of the Sacred Heart. Ad multos annos!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends of St. Stanislaus:

While we congratulate our new alumni of the class of 1959 and rejoice with them, we regret to see them leave. During their years at St. Stanislaus they have been the focus of our interest and the concern of our endeavors. They are the product of our efforts to instill manly Christian principles and to develop in them, with the help of God's grace, the character to live up to these principles. We hope and pray that they may do so.

We are grateful to their parents for having allowed us to share in the formation of their sons. We have tried to honor their trust. To their parents we are indebted for kindnesses and for their generous help and cooperation in our various undertakings.

To our alumni, friends and parents of all our pupils, we wish to offer a special expression of appreciation for their contributions, which have helped to make possible our recently completed infirmary building. We promise a daily remembrance of their intentions in our community prayers.

For their unstinting dedication to their work, we congratulate and thank the teaching staff, the prefects of discipline, the moderators of the various organizations and the heads of the various departments.

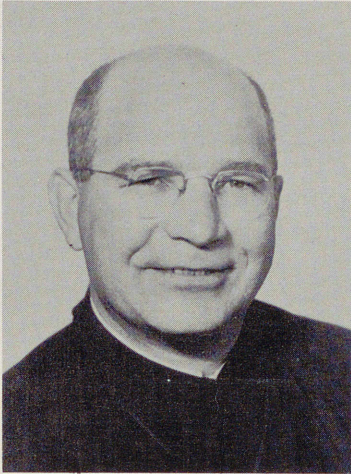

Under God, it is to the uncompromising devotion and dedication of all of you that we owe the success of this one hundred and fifth session.

Sincerely in the Sacred Heart,

Brother Roland S. C.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

My dear Graduates,

As the end of your years of preparation approaches, thoughts of the future necessarily come to your mind. All you have done in the past twelve years has been done solely to prepare you for what lies ahead. This has been the foundation of your future life.

You are ready to face this future only in so far as you have profited by the past. Remember, that this is not really the end, it is the beginning. Intellectually, morally, physically, and spiritually, you are ready.

You have been recipients of the best education that your parents and devoted teachers could give you. You have been founded in the truths of your religion, in the sciences, in mathematics, in languages. You have, above all, been able to benefit by the good example of your teachers—men of God, Brothers of the Sacred Heart—your parents and classmates.

In short, you are ready, come what may!

What, then, is left to you? To you remains the only possible course, the sensible way, the direct path. To you is left the all-important business of eternal salvation, the business in which you cannot fail, you must not fail.

All that is past has been ultimately directed toward the end of saving your soul. Profit by the past. Insure your future and your eternal salvation.

Face the future confidently, for you are ready. Be sincere, do not delude yourself. The road to success is a rough one. You may fall, you may fail, but because of what you learned, you will know how to rise, how to succeed.

Use the knowledge you have acquired wisely and well, so that, in union with the Sacred Heart, you may succeed in the one important goal of life—the salvation of your immortal soul.

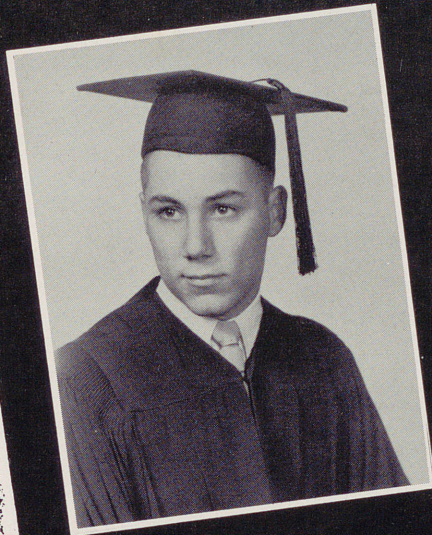

May the blessings of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and His Immaculate Mother be ever yours.

Cordially yours in the Sacred Heart,

Brother Philip, S.C.

Functioned in Two Major Divisions,

THE CONFRATERNITY

The primary reason for the Confraternity of the Sacred Heart is to honor the Sacred Heart by a return of love, to thank Him for the institution of the Blessed Sacrament and make up to Him for the ingratitude and the outrages He has received and still receives from mankind.

The primary purpose is to enable its members by united action, to employ appropriate and efficacious means, principally through the devotion to the Sacred Heart, to attain their most important aim: sanctification. The secondary purpose is to train Catholic Action.

Pat Mashburn, Bobby Lobrano, E. J. Babin, and Billy App assort some of the clothes collected during the highly successful Christmas "Clothes for the Orphans" drive.

JUNIOR-SENIOR DIVISION

The Junior-Senior Confraternity, with its moderator and officers, Brother Reginald, Kenny Aucoin, Freddie Bourgeois, Paulino Diaz, and Frank Peterson, has been a great collaborator in most of the activities of the school.

Since the beginning of the school year, the Confraternity has been having bi-monthly meetings at which plans and projects are made and later carried out.

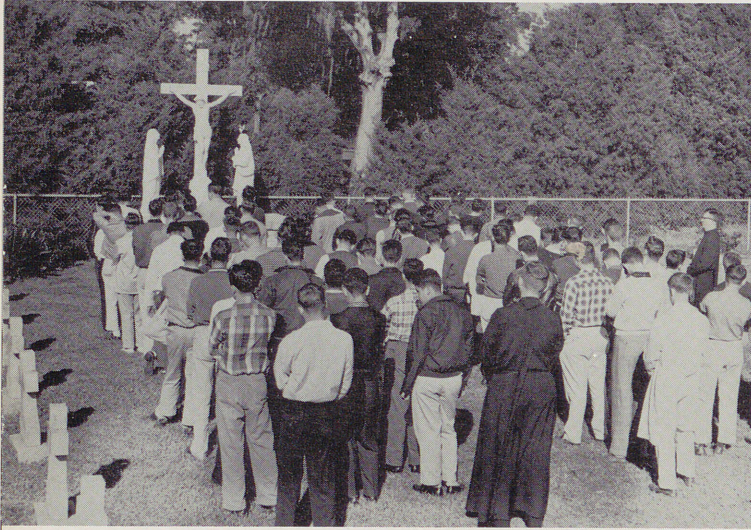

The weekly dances were initiated and proved highly successful. A monthly holy hour, on the night preceding the First Friday, has been the Confraternity's main group project.

THE FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE DIVISION

The activities of the Frosh-Soph group were both spiritual and social. Among the social activities, the Confraternity sponsors a dance once every three weeks in the gym. The money realized from these dances was used to install a new speaking system in the gym.

The spiritual activities are very numerous. During November the Confraternity said the Rosary at the cemetery. October was the month of the Daily Rosary in the SSC Chapel. December saw a highly successful clothes drive.

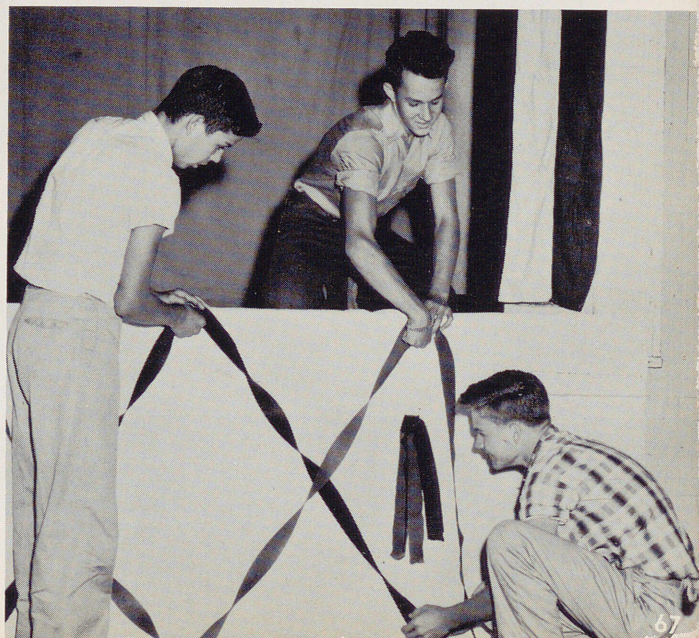

Contacting all the parents to urge them to observe Family Communion Sunday and sponsoring a magazine drive were two early new year projects.

S.S.C. 19—REDEMPTORIST OF N.O. 13

The Rocks turned the Rams into lambs as the Rockachaws scored 19 points in the opening game of the season. SSC scored in the first period with the key play being a 14 yard pass play from Herman Jacobi to James Riordan. Cyril Giarrusso moved the ball for 13 yards and Jacobi went the rest of the way. Redemptorist tied the score and the half ended 6-6. At the very outset of the third period, the Rams fumbled and George Reitmeyer picked it out of the air and ran for a touchdown. The winning touchdown came when in the final minutes of the third period, Jacobi tossed a 28 yard pass to Riordan in the end zone. This time J. E. Loiacano converted to give the Rocks their first victory. The game ended after a 65 yard run by Quarterback Jacobi.

S.S.C. 7—CATHOLIC HIGH OF BATON ROUGE 33

SSC was upset by the Golden Bears in the second game of the season. Fumbling the ball six times in the opening quarter enabled the Bruins to gain a 26-0 lead. The second period was scoreless. After the half, the Rocks scored. Herman Jacobi completed a 25 yard pass to Jimmy Riordan and Cyril Giarrusso ran the pigskin to pay dirt. J. E. Loiacano converted for the extra point.

S.S.C. 6—PENSACOLA HIGH 32

Using a platoon system the Tigers scored in the opening minutes of the game. The second quarter saw the Rocks playing a beautiful offense. Herman Jacobi completed a 35 yard pass to Dee Cambre. The ball kept moving thanks to the fine running of John Kimball, J. E. Loiacano and Cyril Giarrusso. J. E. Loiacano went over for six. In the second half of the game the Rocks tried to hold Pensacola's backs, but the Tigers with fresh men always in the line-up got to score a few more times.

to Draw Capacity Crowds,

Following Cyril Giarrusso's blocking, Quarterback Jacobi gains precious yardage.

S.S.C. 31—NICHOLLS OF NEW ORLEANS 6

Touchdown-happy Rocks crushed Nicholls of New Orleans 31-6 in the SSC stadium. After the first quarter the Rocks and Rebels were still in a 0-0 deadlock. As the second quarter began the Rocks started on a drive which resulted in a three yard plunge by John Kimball. Later Cyril Giarrusso went the same distance with six seconds remaining.

In the second half, it was Kimball again, this time on a 34 yard trek around end. J. E. Loiacano made the extra point bringing the score to 19-6.

Early in the fourth quarter Herman Jacobi shot a 49 yard touchdown pass to Loiacano on the Rebel 10 yard line. Loiacano scored and converted.

With 19 seconds left to play, Ronnie Artigues threw a 22 yard pass to Freddie Bourgeois bringing the score to 31-6.

S.S.C. 12—EAST JEFFERSON OF NEW ORLEANS 0

Taking the opening kickoff, the Rocks marched 76 yards in 22 plays to the 2 yard line, and J. E. Loiacano plunged over. The second quarter saw Loiacano injured and removed from active play. The Rocks' defense broke through and blocked a punt deflecting the ball out of bounds on the Warriors' five, and Jacobi scored for the second touchdown of the day. The second half moved slowly for both sides with the score ending 12-0.

"It's now or never" as Ronnie Artigues skirts left end and Cyril Giarrusso, leading interference, manages a block.

Ran to Victory Amidst Cheers

Throwing out a straight-arm, Johnny Kimball fights for valuable yardage.

S.S.C. 13—McGILL OF MOBILE 7

Halfback Cyril Giarrusso's two 65 yard broken-field touchdown jaunts paced the Rocks over threatening McGill. Coming from behind in the last four minutes of the game, with a "never give-up" spirit, the SSC team scored the clinching touchdown to beat the Yellow Jackets 13 to 7. Giarrusso broke through the middle of McGill's line and sprinted 62 yards for the go-ahead TD at the very beginning of the game. The Jackets drove 72 yards in the second quarter only to be stopped on the Rocks' three by the SSC defense. McGill finally scored and things were looking up for the Jackets until Giarrusso added his crusher with four minutes left in the game. The Rocks' 160 pound speedster outsmarted the Jackets' defenders on his winning 67 yard jaunt. After sweeping around left end, he spun away from a tackler on about the 50. His other bit of nifty running came about 20 yards downfield, when almost cornered, he cut back across the field evading the tackler then ran across the Jackets' goal. Freddie Bourgeois added the extra point.

Cyril Giarrusso breaks through for another of his well-known runs.

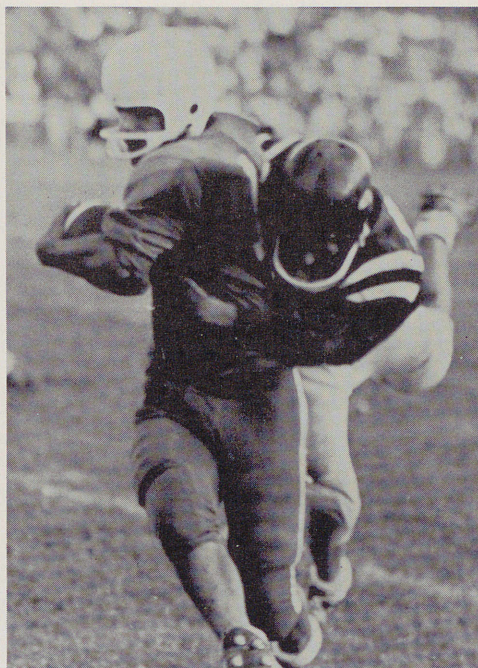

Kimball again has a strong arm ready for the opposition.

S.S.C. 18—REDEMPTORIST OF BATON ROUGE 6

SSC started their first touchdown threat in the opening period, but a fumble broke up the possibility. The second quarter was the Rocks' all the way; the line was tearing the Wolves' wall, and the backs were moving swiftly. Ronnie Artigues ran for 34 yards and scored.

After the half the Rocks took over on their own 16. Cyril Giarrusso then sprinted 84 yards for a second tally. In the third period Giarrusso again ran 43 yards for a TD. He averaged 12.6 yards per carry.

S.S.C. 19—NOTRE DAME OF BILOXI 7

Herman Jacobi started his terrific passing game from the very beginning. Riordan caught a 25 yard pass and ran that distance for a TD. The passes continued and SSC ended on the 2 yard line. Johnny Kimball hit pay dirt. Jacobi again clicked to Dee Cambre in the end zone for the third score. Jacobi to Artigues for the extra point. Jacobi completed 9 tries and gained a total of 190 passing yards.

S.S.C. 13—BOGALUSA HIGH 6

To end the season 7-2, the Rocks played their all against Bogalusa in the last game of the season. Ronnie Artigues, spurred on by Riordan and Cambre and Odom, scored. Artigues and Kimball sparked a 78 yard drive climaxed by Lester Haverty's score. Throughout the season the team played with an "all-out" spirit. Dee Cambre, John Odom, James Shippey, Kenny Aucoin, James Riordan, Robert Van Peski, Jack Mashburn, George Reitmeyer, Jack Alexander, Mike Chase, and Wayne Cleveland, crumbled the Bogalusa wall as they had done in the five previous games to make this their sixth consecutive win the of the season.

Junior Players Prepared to Follow

The Junior-Rocks this year had high hopes for the season under the expert coaching of Brother Neri and Brother Edward, who taught the "stars of tomorrow" all the fundamentals needed to become good athletes. They were taught to block, run and shown the all-important strategy in scoring and winning. However, their determination and hopes were marred by the stronger and more experienced opponents.

Oswald Caceres' determination to stop the opposition proved useful to the J.V. and harmful to many of the opposing teams.

Junior Team players, Billy App and Larry Fee, always get their man—down!

THE FLEA-FLY CLASSIC

The Annual Flea-Fly Classic was started by Brother Peter when he was president at SSC. It is a series of games in which the smaller boys at SSC and SJA participate.

The games always prove both interesting and exciting. This game gives the smaller boys a chance to invite their mothers and fathers to watch them play in the "stadium of the big boys," or to write home of their big thrill of the year.

The Basketball Team

First string Rock-A-Chaw guards are Ronnie Artigues and Jimmy Melerine.

The 1958-59 cagers, ably tutored by Coach Mahfouz, showed plenty of promising young talent. The loss of four lettermen and numerous injuries during the season hampered the Rocks. Tri-captains elected by the team were Jimmy Melerine, Ronnie Artigues and Freddie Bourgeois. The scoring of Jimmy Melerine, Freddie Bourgeois and Ronnie Jackson and the driving power of Ronnie Artigues were bright spots. Luis Ingles and Pat Mashburn saw plenty of action both as reserves and starters. The spirit and young talent of the Rocks was also proved by transfer students Ronnie Jackson, Gary Blaize, Jerry Black, and Finley Hewes. The team's spirit and "stick-to-it-tiveness" gave promise of a bright future.

Gave Example to the Junior Team,

The junior team of this year showed as much improvement as last year's as it was filled with good prospects for future varsity players. Coached under the fine supervision of Brother Eldon, the team's record was close to that of the varsity. On the first team were A. J. Soulagnet, Harold Esquerre, John Chevis, Oswald Caceres, and Pete Orlin. The second team was Danny Baudoin, Finley Hewes, and Tom Lyon, and Lars Phillips.

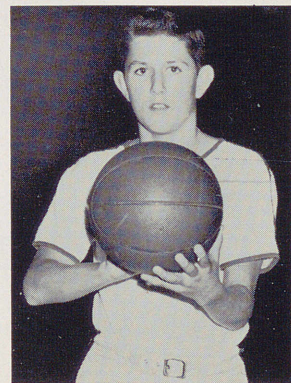

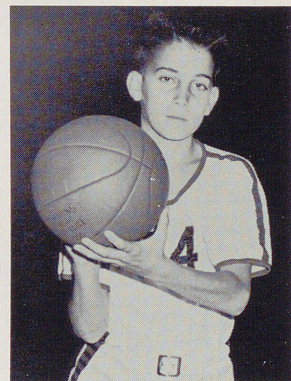

Though the juniors lacked a great deal of height this year, they made up for it in a very fine display of shooting ability. Most of these boys lacked experience. This experience was obtained during the season. By next season these boys will be older, taller, and have more experience and should show a great deal of improvement.

The second annual intramural basketball, under the guiding hand of Coach Reuben Ruiz, proved to be the climax of the basketball season.

All teams played their best and the tournament was highly contested from the start to finish. Brother Linus's Senior Team was the final winner.

All boys of the high school classes, except members of the Varsity Squad, are eligible and all are encouraged to play. The teams all represent their various home-rooms and trophies are awarded the winning team and the most valuable players of each team. The winning team is the guest of the Athletic Association at the Annual All-Sports Banquet in the late Spring.

Powerful Baseball Team

The opposing catcher rushes in vain to recover the ball and the pitcher awaits a long coming ball as Ramiro Gereda slides home.

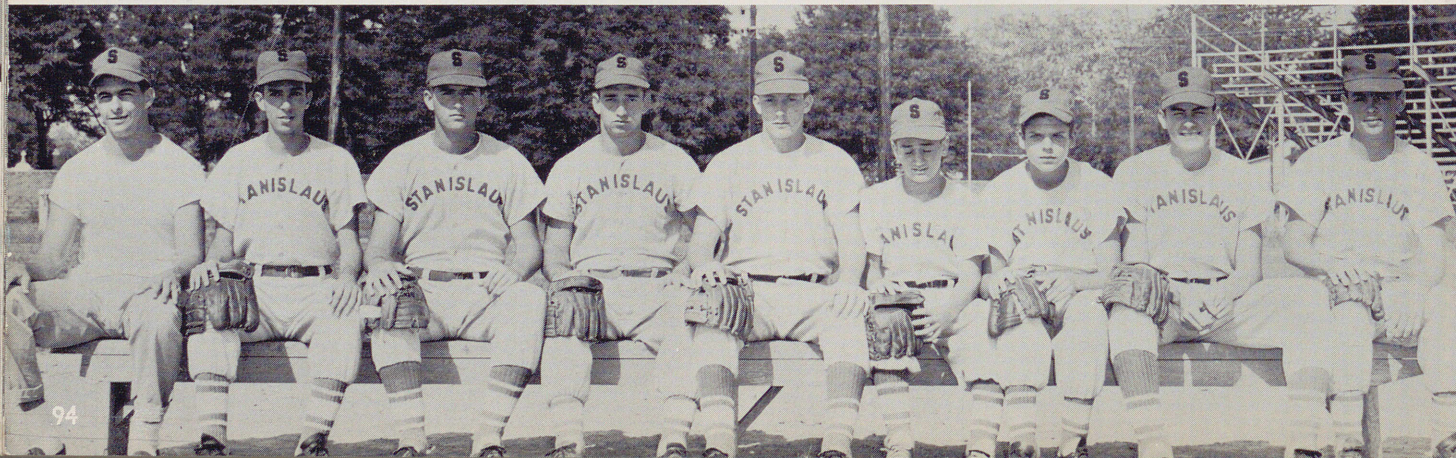

The 1958 Baseball Rock-A-Chaws, coached by Happy Mahfouz, finished the season with a 3-7 record. There were, however, some bright spots and the outlook for next year was much brighter.

The Rocks were led by their hard-hitting captain, Quinten Couevas, who, while handling most of the pitching chores, slammed the ball for a remarkable .461 average. Second in the hitting department was diminutive second baseman E. J. Babin, who bothered enemy pitchers for a .375 average.

For the most part of the season, the Rocks lined up with J. E. Loiacano behind the plate. Couevas was on the mound and the infield was manned by first baseman Brent Seward, second baseman Babin, third baseman Herman Jacobi, and shortstop Ramiro Gereda. The outfield was patrolled by Donald Buendia, Jack Mashburn, and Obed Lagarde. Jimmy Broussard, Ronnie Artigues, and Pat Mashburn supplied valuable pinch hitting. Gordon Prat and Nathan Carmadelle made the Rocks a well managed club.

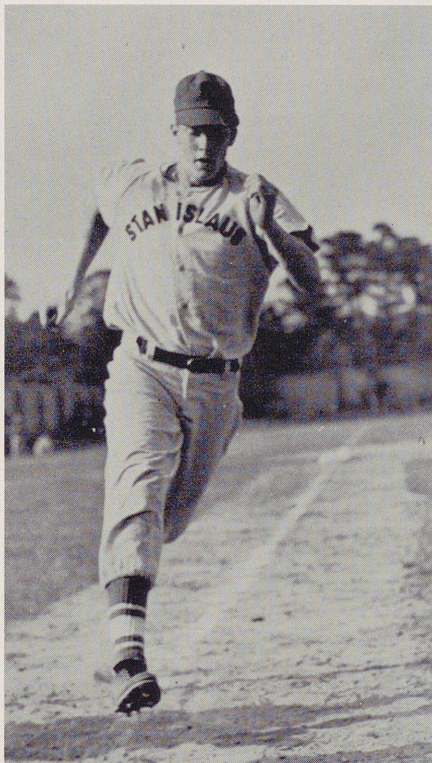

With only Couevas and Lagarde gone from the starting nine, the 1959 season looked to be a successful one.

Swinging with unleashed power, Brent Seward comes within an inch of a homerun and proves the skill of Brother Godfrey's camera finger.

Athletics Was Climaxed by All-Sports Banquet.

Guest speaker, Eddie Price, extols the importance of sportsmanship at the Annual Athletic Banquet.

THE ALL-SPORTS BANQUET

Toward the end of the year the All-Sports Banquet is held in the school dining room. This gathering is composed of all boys who have participated in any of the varsity activities—football, basketball, baseball, and track.

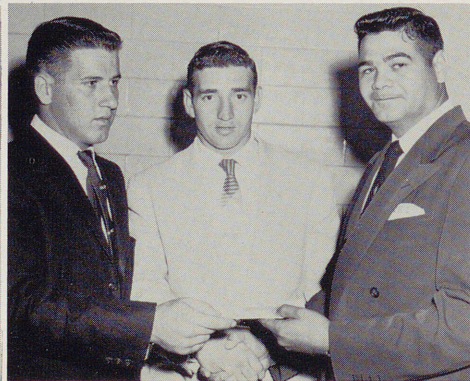

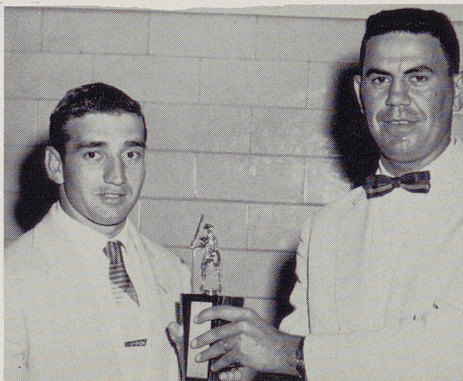

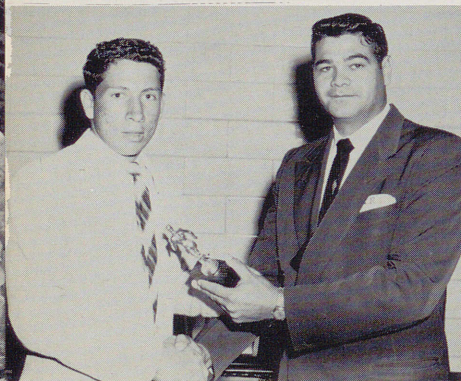

At the banquet, trophies are awarded to different players who have shown themselves worthy of the award. A talk highlights the evening. This speech is usually delivered by a famous person of the sporting world.

Above: Mitch Decuir receives the Most Valuable Player award in football from Coach Reuben Ruiz. Mr. Ruiz, in charge of track, proudly hands Abelardo Caceres the Most Valuable Trophy in Track (below).

Basketball coach, Happy Mahfouz, presents J. E. Loiacano the Most Valuable Basketball Player Award for his outstanding work on the court. Below, Quinten Couevas is awarded the trophy for baseball excellence.

Mitch Decuir and Quinten Couevas, representing the 1957-58 teams, present Coach Ruiz with a token of their great appreciation.

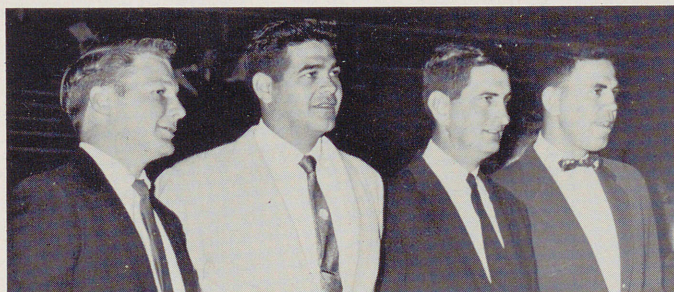

Representing the varsity, Dee Cambre and J. E. Loiacano listen to pre-game instructions with Mitch Decuir and Quinten Couevas who captained the senior team.

The Senior-Varsity Game Ended Spring Practice.

This game, the greatest of the year for some, is a battle of next year's varsity against any player ineligible for the next season. It is played to see just about how the varsity of next year will do against tough opposition. Last year's game was a thriller in which the Seniors won 12-7. This being the last game for most of the seniors, they play with great determination and make it one of the most interesting games of the year.

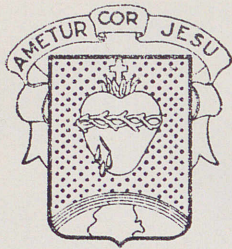

Calling varsity signals, Quarterback Ronnie Artigues readies to throw for another gain.

Men of distinction—Cooter Zimmerle, Reuben Ruiz, Brother Cosmas, Happy Mahfouz—watch their players display well learned football tactics.

Solos and Comedy Added to Entertainment

With chest bedecked by medals, Jimmy Raymond shows the concert audience why he was chosen to receive a music scholarship to Loyola University.

The annual Band Concert was the high point of the musical year here at SSC, but we had had a very busy year. "Tweet" . . . the drums rolled . . . another whistle . . . the band counted time . . . and the SSC Band hit the field with a peppy stride for homecoming celebrations. Football season passed quickly, but the year had only begun for the band members. They buckled down to work on difficult passages and practiced every day. They had a concert to give and a state contest to attend.

Parties, dances and gay times added much to make the band a well-functioning organization. Brother Romuald took pains to always insure the success of whatever the band members undertook.

1957-58 was a year with ups and downs, highlights and low points for the band, but a year we will always remember.

BROTHER ROMUALD, S.C.
Band Director

Playing classical, semi-classical, and popular music, the SSC Band under the direction of Brother Romuald, thrilled the concert audience.

at Annual Band Concert.

"Butch" Scafidi, portraying an insomniac, tries to dial soothing music and receives only discouraging results, much to the liking of the listeners.

The annual Christmas Party for band members saw Warren Carver escort his date, Sheila Gottschalk, around the dance floor.

DAVID BISHOP

David Bishop, a resident of Pass Christian, entered St. Stanislaus in the fourth grade. He is presently a junior. He was admitted to the band in the fifth grade and since then has played sax. He is first lieutenant of the band. He was elected once for the State Band Clinic and four times for Pearl River Junior College Band Clinic. David has been selected for the Lions All-State Band for the past three years and received several superior ratings in State competition for solo and ensemble playing. The sax player also was a member of the Rocksters Dance Band for three years. An active member of the Confraternity of the Sacred Heart, David was vice-president in the eighth and ninth grades and is still an active member of the local C.Y.C. An honor roll student, David plans to study electrical engineering. A nice personality and a willingness to help have made him much in demand on the campus for any of many chores.

Outstanding Band Members

A resident of Bay St. Louis, Warren Carver also entered SSC in the fourth grade. Studying clarinet and flute he was admitted to the concert band in 1952. Warren was selected for State Clinic Band three times and four times for Pearl River Junior College Band Clinic. He has received two Superior ratings in State Solo Contests for clarinet and two Superior ratings in State Ensembles Contest for saxophones. He has been a member of his local parish church altar boy society, and is an active member of the Confraternity of the Sacred Heart. Warren is captain of the band this year. He played sax for three years in the Rocksters Dance Band. He is a member of the Boy Scouts Troop No. 217 here in Bay St. Louis. A very talented musician, Warren plans on going to college and hopes to some day be a chemist. He plays clarinet, saxophone, and flute very well but clarinet is his preference. He also is an active participant in the school's activities.

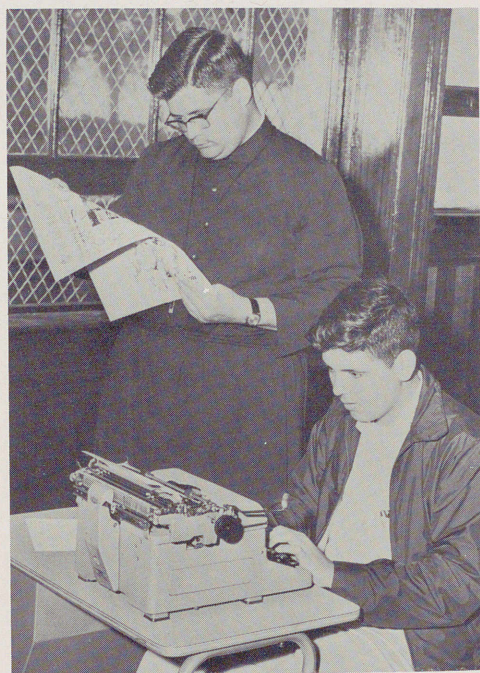

WARREN CARVER

THE ROCK-A-CHAW

The Rock-A-Chaw, the school newspaper, is a messenger from the school to the students, parents, and alumni. Its main purpose is to inform the reader of the news of the day and events to come.

The Rock-A-Chaw trains students to become journalists and provides an outlet for the talent of those enrolled in the course.

Each publication reaches across the United States into hands of parents, and old and young alumni throughout the world.

Brother Damian and Richard Matamoros prepare the next issue of the "Rock-A-Chaw."

Another issue is off the press and is avidly read by the student body: Lance Mora, Jose Cardenas, Larry Fee, Danny Blanchard, Eddie Rockhold, Jerry Barron and Jimmy Morse.

Brother Godfrey, photographer for the White Cap, spent hours and hours in the darkroom developing and printing the negatives he took to make the 1959 yearbook better than any previous year.

After hours of work and revision the 1959 White Cap comes to you. It is the book of memories for another year at SSC—be it your first or last.

Hundreds of pictures taken by Brother Godfrey were given to the staff for page layouts. Writing captions, planning pages and editing copy occupied the time from September to March.

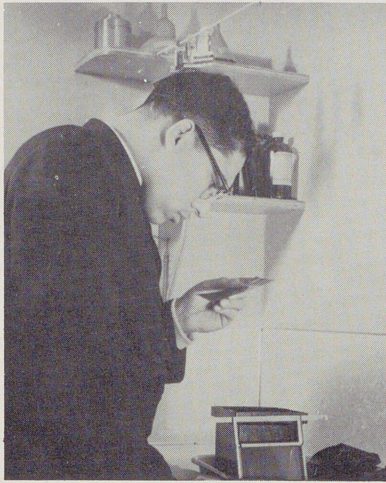

Boys worked for ads and hit an all-time high record, and at last the final copy was ready for the publishers and work would begin on the 1960 White Cap.

James Melerine, James Shippey, Robert Homes, and Herman Jacobi, ad men par excellence, are to be highly complimented for setting a new record in yearbook ads—thus enabling this issue to have features which it would otherwise have been impossible to have.

of 1959.

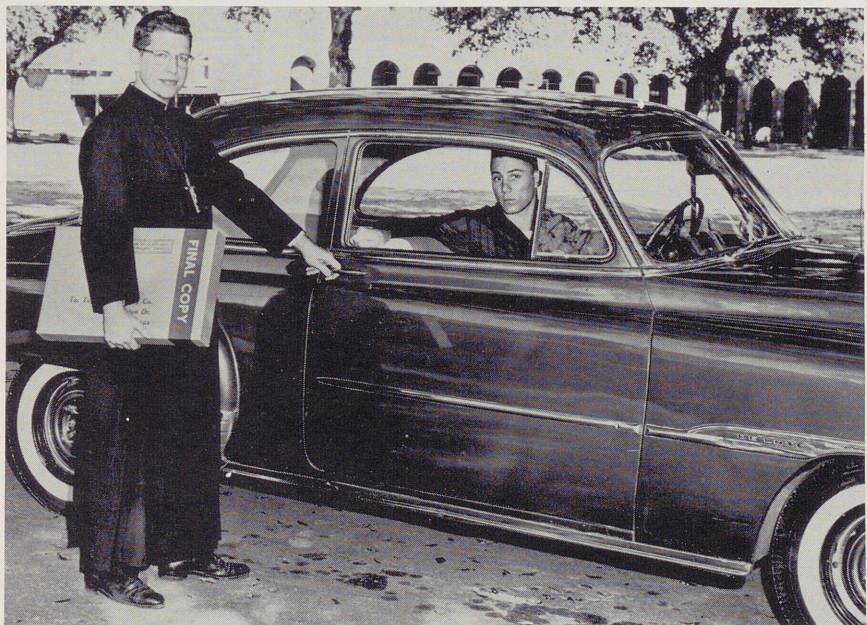

Fr. Wilbur White, S.V.D., helped Brother Godfrey with the picture taking.

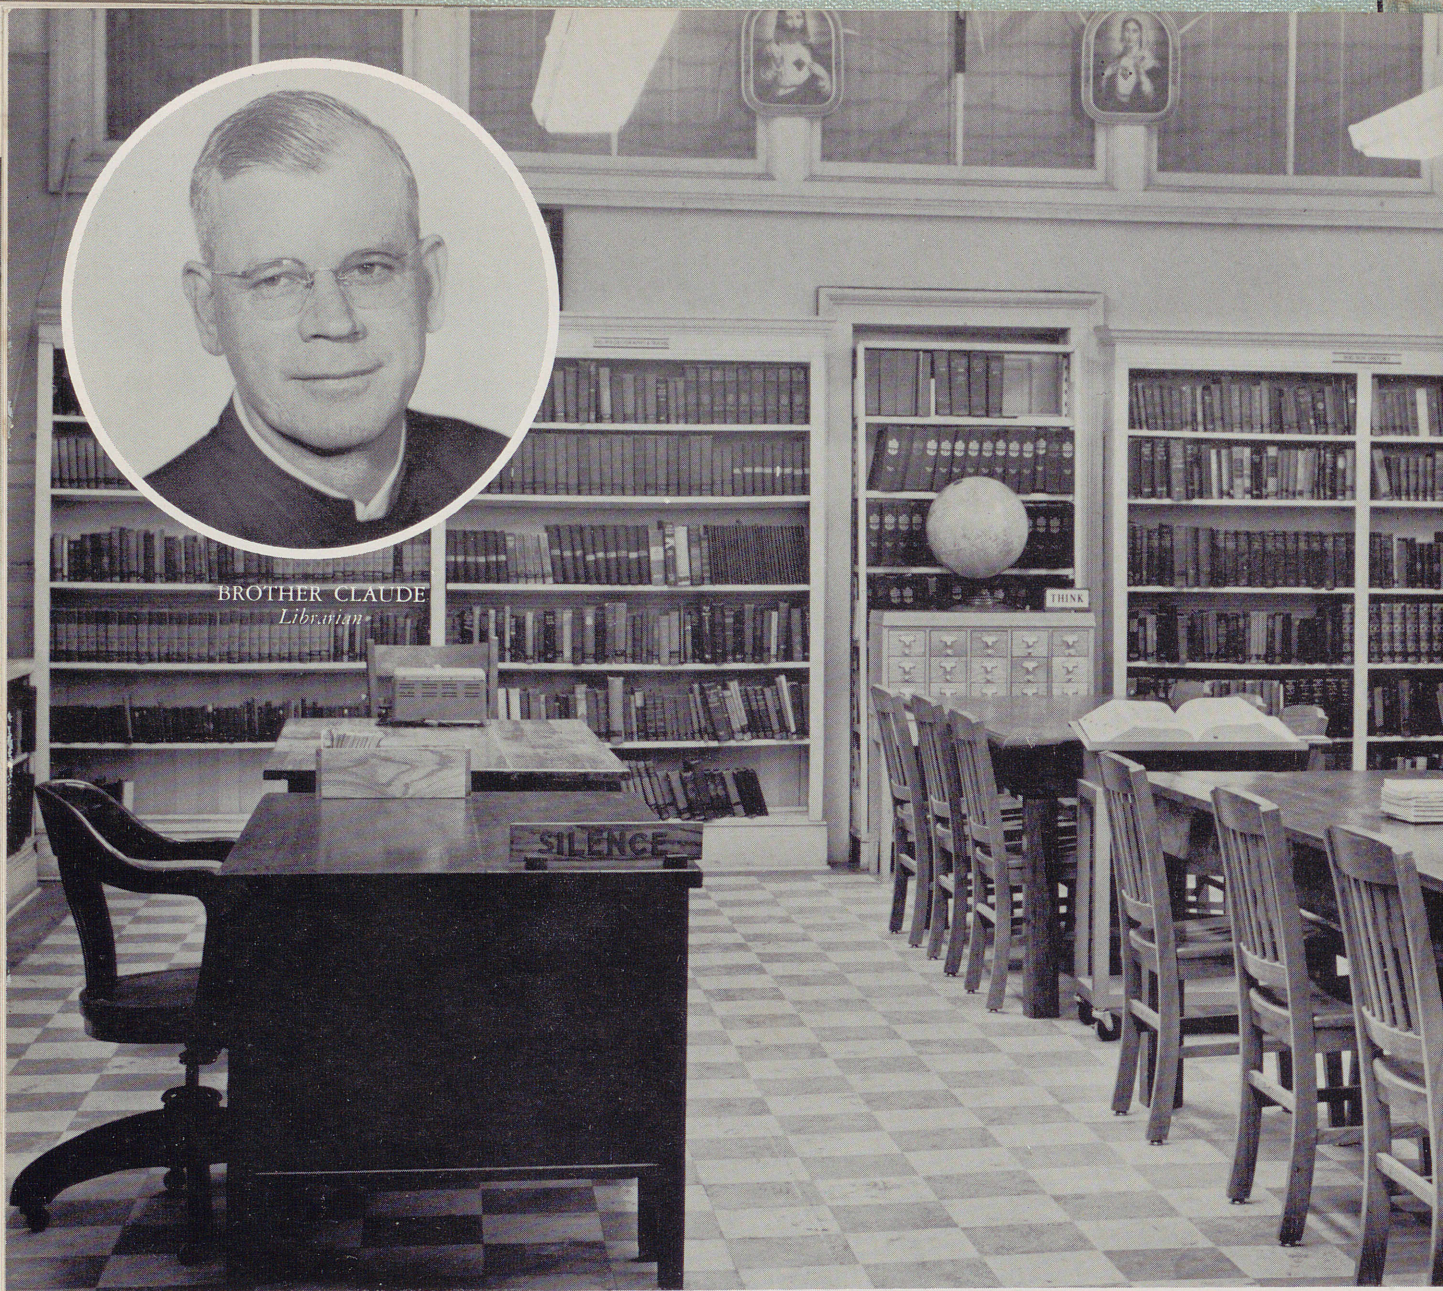

Mac Trelles, Donald Duhon, and Douglas Black helped on layouts, caption writing, copy editing, etc.

Brother Jean, Faculty Advisor and Business Manager, leaves to mail the Final Copy Deadline to Dallas. He and Kenny Aucoin, assistant editor, can well breathe a sigh of relief as the yearbook work is brought to a close.

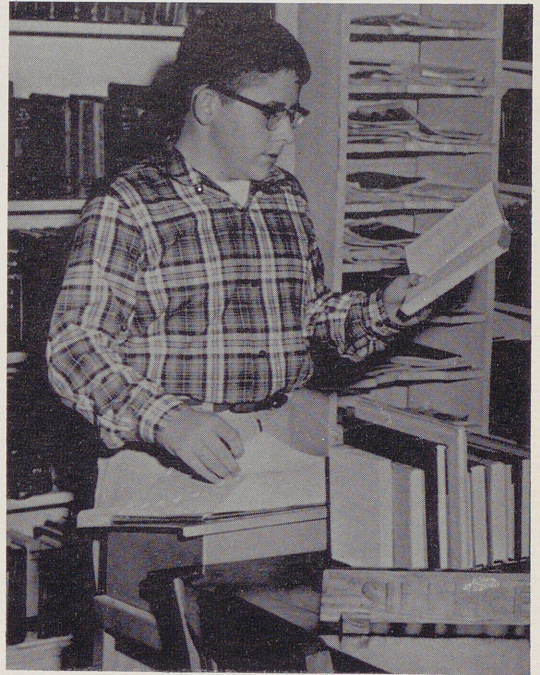

BROTHER CLAUDE
Librarian

The SSC library, the scene of many hours of student work, is the main source of intellectual improvement on the campus.

Our library is a resource center for the entire student body and is made to help students use the materials effectively. It provides materials for reference in connection with classwork as well as for personal enjoyment. Providing a wide variety of books, pamphlets, and periodicals, it caters to the taste of all. With a qualified librarian and efficient staff, the library is always open to help the SSC student body in any of their intellectual pursuits.

Our Library

Michael Larroux, one of the library's many constant visitors, looks up a difficult word.

Themes, essays, and term papers provide reasons for Bill Koehle and Billy App to use some of the library's many research books.

The New Infirmary Replaces

"Before and After" could be the theme of the infirmary pages this year. Above is the old building, a familiar structure in which the student body received medical care for many years. Below, the new brick and concrete building nears completion to provide SSC with the long-awaited facilities and conveniences of a new infirmary. The first floor will contain three classrooms, and offices for school publications. The second will be the infirmary, and the top floor will provide private rooms for the faculty.

an Old Familiar Landmark.

Mrs. Deignan, ever ready to help in any illness, orders some of the medicines needed to cure her young charges.

Bobby Lobrano gets his blood pressure taken by Dr. Quigley, school physician.

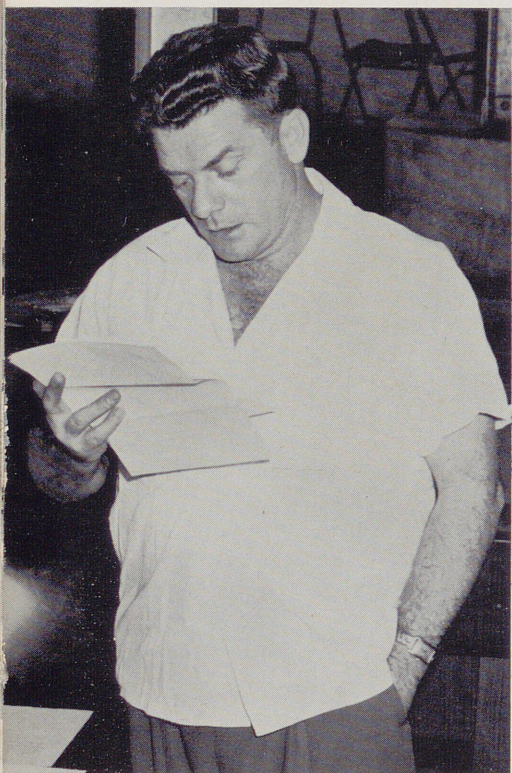

The doctor's office is the waiting room for many of the SSC boys who are not feeling up to par. Here J. B. Sunseri enters as Charles Lacour awaits his turn to see the doctor.

The Sidelines Club

To help raise funds to carry on its many helpful projects, the Sidelines Club sponsored a turkey shoot, which drew a large enthusiastic crowd.

Brother Philip, representing the faculty, reads a report of activities to the assembled club members at one of their monthly meetings.

Helps Athletics.

For over twenty-five years the Sidelines Club has given financial and moral support to the athletic program of the school. During the past year, under the presidency of Mr. John Auderer, it has installed glass backboards in the gym and has supplied films for the movies of all the football games. The club staged a successful bingo last May and ran the concession stands at all football games. Mr. James Travirca acted as chairman for a successful Turkey Shoot in Dec. Mr. Charles Gottschalk was first vice-president and Mr. A. J. Frey was second vice-president.

Mr. A. J. Frey of Waveland, an active club member, shows his son, A. J., one of the targets at the turkey shoot.

Adopting the devotion of the First Saturday as the spiritual project of the club, members proved most faithful to assisting at Mass, receiving Holy Communion, and saying the Rosary in the SSC chapel.

The Alumni Association

Watched by members of the Alumni Association who greatly assisted in financing the new infirmary, Brother Roland turns a spadeful of dirt to officially begin the construction.

Brother Athanasius, Secretary of the Alumni Association, poses with Michael Irwin, Bill Foster (members of the Central Committee) and Eddie Brignac, Jr., newly elected President. Brother Roland is President ex-officio.

Remains Active.

The members of the Alumni Association consist of graduates and former students of SSC. By right of graduation, graduates are received as members on application. All graduates who sent in their application before the closing exercises of June, 1958, are charter members. After that time all applicants for membership go through the initiation ceremonies of reception.

The objects of the Association are:

- 1) To preserve and increase the filial affection which former students bear to their Alma Mater, and to encourage them to further its interests as far as lies in their power.
- 2) To renew and perpetuate the friendships of younger days.
- 3) To provide its members with the advice of sincere and trustworthy friends.

Brother Roland, President of SSC, addresses the assembled members of the Alumni Association at the Annual Banquet.

S.S.C. Troupers Overcame

As emcee par excellence, senior class president Kirk Mattle introduced the various talent show acts.

"There's no business like show business!" was evidently the theme of Brothers Jean and Damian as they led the student body to try out for various roles or play the all-important part of stage hands. The very eager freshmen dabbled in grease paint for the first time and with shaky knees acted in their first skit. Sophomores thought they had licked the "butterflies" problem and plunged in with new enthusiasm. Juniors banged on scenery, splashed paint, and then nervously awaited for the curtain to rise. Seniors seemed old hands on the stage and many showed real acting ability. We improved from skit to skit and the audience roared its approval. Yet all hearts still pounded as curtain time neared and sometimes even words were forgotten.

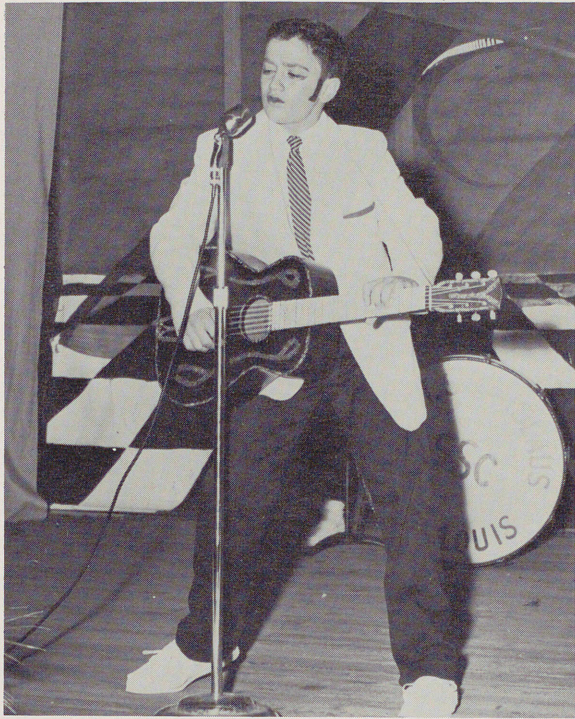

A lot of work but a lot of fun—this was our talent show—this was our show business.

Often having to pause in their act because of laughter from the audience, Charlie Falgout, Mitch Decuir, Nathan Carmadelle, and Oscar Odriozola, literally "brought the house down" with their rendition of Strolling thru the Park.

Butterflies to Attain Stardom.

Our own Chuck Berry, E. J. Babin, won first prize with his pantomime of Sweet Little Sixteen.

Representing SJA, Johne Cowand, Ann Blanchard, Kathy Joyce, Emily Delph, Rosy Cowand, and Mary Louise Peranich portrayed Lollipop.

"Blackface" Minstrel Stimulated

With Kathy Joyce at the piano and Kirk Mattle as interlocutor, Brothers Damian and Jean again led the student body into another production. Practice, practice, practice, until throats were sore and voices were hoarse. Repeat, repeat, repeat until the words to songs and jokes went to school, meals and bed with members of the cast. The chorus worked diligently for polish and were ready for that big first night.

Thus the second production of the 1957-58 school year added another few hours of laughter to our lives here at SSC.

Berch Wilbert, star of the minstrel, renders a tear-jerking version of Mammy.

Charlie "Amos" Falgout and interlocutor Kirk Mattle listen as Van Aucoin and Jimmy Raymond play Alexander's Ragtime Band.

"Yassuh" says Nathan Carmadelle as he proves himself one of the minstrel's best comedians.

Student Interest in Performing.

Quinten Couevas and Berch Wilbert took the audience by storm with their many foolish actings.

Jimmy Brooks, Al Davis, Quinten Couevas, and Berch Wilbert do a soft-shoe routine to Shine on Harvest Moon.

"So, good-bye, my lady love, good-bye" sings the entire group as the curtain closes on another few hours of merriment.

The Rock-A-Cheers

Under the guidance of Mrs. Reuben Ruiz and Mrs. James Zimmerle, a new organization swept unto the SSC campus this year. The "Rock-A-Cheers" are members of the SJA student body who give their time and voices to cheering for the Rock-A-Chaw football squad. Performing at half-time, they have greatly helped the cheering at games—home and away. We thank these young ladies and their sponsors for their help during our football season.

The laundry group, under the direction of Brother Ramon, is constantly working to keep the boys well supplied with clean clothes. Each has a particular job which is fulfilled to the best of abilities—such as washing, drying, sewing, dry-cleaning and ironing. The crew is to be congratulated on a very fine job throughout the year.

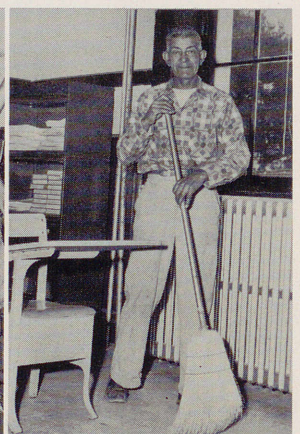

The maintenance crew is also to be honored for their continued efforts to keep SSC clean and in fine working order.
